

Adulting Classes at Wayne County Public Library

Adulting 101: Know Your Finances

Goldsboro Library

Monday, June 5th – 4:00-5:00 PM

If you are between the ages of 18-25, come to the Adulting sessions and learn some important basic skills to becoming an adult. The first session is Know Your Finances, where you will learn about balancing a checkbook and setting up a budget. Lee Hulse from Bank on Wayne will be speaking on this topic.

For more information, call Heath at 919-735-1824 ext. 5121.

Adulting 101: Getting A Job

Goldsboro Library

Monday, June 12th – 4:00-5:00 PM

If you are between the ages of 18-25, come to the Adulting sessions and learn some important skills to being an adult. Learn how to write a great resume through Optimal Resume as you start searching for jobs.

For more information, call Heath at 919-735-1824 ext. 5121.

Adulting 101: What is Fake News?

Goldsboro Library

Monday, June 19th – 4:00-5:00 PM

One term that has continued to resonate in the media is the term “fake news.” But what is fake news? Learn all about fake news and how to separate real from fake news in this session.

For more information, call Heath at 919-735-1824 ext. 5121.

Adulting 101: Moving Out

Goldsboro Library

Monday, July 10th – 4:00-5:00 PM

If you are between the ages of 18-25, come to the Adulting sessions and learn some important basic skills to becoming an adult. Ian Foley, Director of Housing from the University of Mount Olive, will be presenting tips on dorm life and what to expect. Learn what things you will need and what to look for when living in a dorm. Also, learn about your rights as a student living on-campus in campus housing.

For more information, call Heath at 919-735-1824 ext. 5121.

Adulting 101: Cooking on A Budget

Goldsboro Library

Monday, July 31st – 4:00-5:00 PM

If you are between the ages of 18-25, come to the Adulting sessions and learn some important basic skills to becoming an adult. Michelle Estrada, Extension Agent, Family & Consumer Services for the Cooperative Extension of Wayne County, will show how to cook quick meals on a college budget.

For more information, call Heath at 919-735-1824 ext. 5121.